

Case Western Reserve University Graduate Council of Arts and Sciences
Official Constitution

ARTICLE I. ORGANIZATION

Section 1. Name

The name of this organization shall be the Graduate Council of Arts and Sciences, hereby referred to as (the) GCAS.

Section 2. Purpose

With the purpose of facilitating a unified representational voice for all graduate students in the College of Arts and Sciences at Case Western Reserve University, the GCAS hereby aims:

1. To provide a platform that will help identify and advocate for the needs and concerns unique to graduate students and graduate student organizations in the College of Arts and Sciences.
2. To serve as a resource for individual departments within the College of Arts and Sciences in addressing the needs of their graduate students.
3. To provide social and professional development opportunities for current and potential Arts and Sciences graduate students.
4. To facilitate representation of Arts and Sciences graduate students in the Graduate Student Council (GSC).
5. To facilitate representation of Arts and Sciences graduate students to the Arts and Sciences administration.
6. To encourage Arts and Sciences graduate student participation in individual department leadership and student organizations.
7. To promote fellowship among the Arts and Sciences graduate students.

Section 3. Affiliations

This organization is not affiliated with any local, state, or national group.

ARTICLE II. MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Requirements for Membership

A. General membership:

General membership is open to any College of Arts and Sciences graduate student enrolled at least half-time, including students in on-line and integrated programs. General members are invited to attend assemblies, but they may not vote.

B. Voting Membership:

Voting membership is held by the following: The elected Executive Board members (see Article IV), the Departmental Senators (one [1] per Arts and Sciences Department), and the elected GSC representatives. Each individual is allowed one (1) vote, even if they hold more than one (1) position.

Section 2. Qualifications for Holding Office

To be eligible to hold an Executive Board position (see Article IV), a student must fulfill requirements for membership, must be enrolled in a program leading towards a degree, and must (at the time of election) be able to serve a full one (1) year term.

ARTICLE III. NON-DISCRIMINATION STATEMENT

Membership in this organization shall be without regard to race, religion, age, color, sex, disability, sexual orientation, national origin, marital status, veteran's status, political belief, or affiliation. While this Council exists to promote the graduate students of the College of Arts and Sciences at Case Western Reserve University, participation is open to the wider campus body and interested members of the community.

ARTICLE IV. OFFICERSSection 1. Elected Officers of the Executive Board

The elected executives of this organization will be:

1. President
2. Vice President
3. Information Officer
