 2. To ask questions for clarification and additional information.
 3. To come to a decision on the responsibility of the accused party and the subsequent sanctions that are appropriate.
- viii. The Chief Justice then explains the role of the Director of Greek Life or their designee:
1. To advise the Board concerning procedure

2. To advise the Chief Justice.

 3. The complainant calls the first witness, who is asked to “State your name,” and is informed by the Chief Justice that providing false information to the J.J.B will result in disciplinary action.

5. The accused party is then allowed to ask questions of the witness.
6. The Justices may then ask questions of the witness.

10. The Chief Justice may limit the duration of the questioning of a witness at any time during the questioning.

xii. The response is as follows:

1. The accused is called forth to testify by the Chief Justice and asked to “state your name”, and is informed by the Chief Justice that providing false information to the J.J.B. will result in disciplinary action. He is then asked to relate the facts surrounding the case.
2. Questions may then be asked of the accused party by the following individuals in the following order: The complainant, the Justices, any further questions as outlined above.
3. The Chief Justice asks the accused if there are any additional witnesses to support the response, and these are brought forth one by one to testify.

4. Questions are asked of each witness by the following individuals in the following order: The accused party, the complainant, the Justices, any further questions.

xiii. The summation is as follows:

1. The complainant and the accused party shall each present a brief summary of the significant points of the hearing.

xiv. The J.J.B then deliberates the responsible or innocence of the accused. The J.J.B. should discuss and consider all the relevant facts, evidence, and testimony presented in the case. The J.J.B shall not consider the past history of the accused when considering guilt or innocence.

xv. If the J.J.B. finds the accused party responsible, they must discuss sanctions for the accused. During this portion of the deliberations the judicial history of the chapter shall be considered. The Director of Greek Life or their designee may also advise the J.J.B. during discussion of sanctions because the judicial history of the accused party may precede the knowledge of the current Board. The relevant judicial history shall not extend longer than any active member has been in the chapter, unless specified otherwise by prior sanctions. Sanctions should be appropriate considering both the seriousness of the violation and the past judicial history of the accused. Sanctions should serve both as a deterrent and an educational tool. The Board should be consistent with sanctioning from case to case.

xvi. The hearing is then dismissed by the Chief Justice.

h. Hearing procedure for a “no contest” plea:

i. The hearing shall be informal.

ii. The accused party has the right to explain their perspective to the Board, but not to call witnesses.

v. Deliberations shall be conducted in the same manner as the “not responsible” hearing.

i. In the case of a plea of “no contest” by the accused or a decision of “responsible” by the J.J.B., a written decision statement will be delivered to the concerned party within two business days following the scheduled hearing date.

i. Included within this statement will be J.J.B.’s specific interpretations of any imposed sanctions or references to existing written definitions.

j. The Director of Greek Life or their designee will assist the Chief Justice in ensuring the completion of sanctions. The Director of Greek Life or their designee
