

Ellen Zentner

Chief U.S. Economist and Managing Director at Morgan Stanley

Co-hosted by: Weatherhead Women in Business, Weatherhead Economics Society, Women in Economics Club, and The Weatherhead Fund

Join Us: MONDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 2020

Zentner will speak about the importance of working in teams and the value in diversity of thought. She will offer advice on how to actively manage your career, including identifying mentors, fostering your mentor relationships, honoring your values and navigating a healthy relationship with your boss to drive your career. Hear about working on Wall Street and the value of your economics degree and why everyone should understand the economy.

Two student sessions are being offered and will each include Q&A with Zentner. Students can attend either session or both! Registration is required!

Session One: 3:15-4:15 p.m. EST

Session Two: 5:00-6:00 p.m. EST
